

Thank you for considering renting through Rental Real Estate (RRE). To eliminate any confusion, please review the minimum qualifications required of all of our residents to rent through RRE. All required information/documents must be provided within three business days of application. If this is not provided, RRE reserves the right to put the apartment/house back on the market and you may be required to re-apply.

RRE abides by the Fair Housing Act. We provide equal housing for all regardless of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, or familial status.

These are only minimum criteria for application approvals.

We charge a non-refundable application fee of $20.00 for every adult who will live in the rental unit/house.

Credit score of approximately 600 plus OR if no score then other factors must be very good (possible exception for medical emergencies bills.)

No incarceration or parole status within 2 years and no criminal drugs (including felony & alcohol), violent crimes or sex crimes.

At least one year of employment at current job or two years at previous job. Proof of income must be provided. (Pay-stubs, bank statement, 2 years of tax returns , etc) Take home income must be at least 4 times for houses; and three times the rent for the apartments.

We expect a good rental history report from current and past landlords. No evictions within the past 7 years; and, good rental history since.

Co signers are not accepted Sometimes first and last months rent will be requested to qualify.

If you are from a different country, we need a copy of your J-1, F-1 or I-20

If we have more than one application for a unit the most qualified will be chosen .

Some properties are pet friendly but not all. Check with office to see if property accepts pets or not
